Be of Good Cheer

On the 9th of July last, there was a large meeting of citizens at Geneva, Switzerland, in favor of the Union (of the United States) and of measures taken by the Government at Washington for the abolition of slavery, and at which an address was adopted, offering "the most ardent prayers that, inspired by patriotic thought, the States still in revolt may range themselves forever under the Star Spangled Banner of the Union." The whole proceedings of the meeting—resolutions and addresses—were in favor of the defeat of a party who wished to crush down all true freedom on this Continent. The Switzers declared "it their duty to give expression to these paternal feelings and encouragement to their Republican brethren on the other side of the Ocean." Says the address:

"People of the United States! the only Republic of Europe, Helvetia, has had her moments of [illegible] strife and attempts at separation. She has come forth triumphant from these trials. She has come forth stronger, more united than before. Those of our Cantons which formerly wished to separate would now rise without distinction to uphold this Federal compact. It will be the same with the American Union. The Southern States will comprehend that the safeguards of their independence and of their prosperity is to be found in the Constitution—in Liberty.

"The struggle has commenced between the two principles—Liberty and Slavery.

"The consequence of victory must be the abolition of slavery forever and everywhere.

"Hail, Liberty! Hail, Republic of the United States."

The proceedings of the meeting were transmitted to the President of the United States. Mr. Seward, in his behalf, in response said:

"The people of Switzerland may rest assured, whatever else may fail, that it will not be the people of the United States which will betray the Republican system to foreign enemies or surrender it to domestic faction.

"Hail, Helvetia, the only Republic in Europe."

The Vacant Chief Justiceship.—Roger B. Taney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, is dead. Such is the burden of a confirmed message transmitted over the electric wires. The sage and venerable jurist who gave talent to his country, but who has also left us a Dred Scott decision, has gone before a tribunal higher and more righteously just than that over which he presided, and from whose decision there is no appeal—not even the multitude of beautified spirits who walk the golden streets, and dwell in the eternal temple of Unerring Justice. We cannot say Judge Taney outlived his usefulness. We hold such a proposition to be simply preposterous; and it were foolishly wicked for political reasons to rejoice over his demise, as to sneer at the hat of the King of Terrors whose office it was to call him hence. In a few years since, we heard men express a wish that Judge Taney might die before the last scene of Buchanan's administration was closed, so that a successor, with longer lease of life, and entertaining "sound" political views, could be appointed; previous to the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln—that the imps of nether-lades might secure a safer tool to perpetuate their torments upon the sons of men. The wish—regardless of the motive—was wrong, and can only be excused by remembering the heat of political excitement. While the sad event was one called to note must and should clothe the [illegible] habiliments of respectful woe, the thinking mind will discern another wave of the wand of destiny—another motion of the finger of our National Providence, as it points us toward the goal of peace, liberty, and a hitherto unequalled prosperity. Peace to the manes of Judge Taney.

A Consultation Between Three Democrats.—Three rebels of different degrees, happened lately to be together. "I go," said one, "for McClellan on his letter of acceptance." "I support him, and the second, "on the doctrines of the Platform of the Chicago Convention." "I [illegible]" added the third, "that he is my candidate because the whole Southern Confederacy regard his success as securing the Independence of the South."

All these men assume the honored name of Democrats.

Price by the Last Steamers for the Last.—The San Francisco Bulletin says the prices of passage by the Pacific Mail steamship Constitution, which sailed for Panama on the 10th inst., are thus announced: First cabin, for outside and inside rooms respectively, $238 and $186 25; second cabin $132 50; steerage, $78 75. The rates by the Nicaragua steamer [illegible], which sailed on the 19th, were about as follows: First cabin, $175 and $125; second cabin $100.

Miscegenation.—In San Francisco lately, a good looking Irish woman came to the station house for protection from her husband, who is a Chinaman. They were married ten years ago in New York and until recently have lived happily together. Two children the result of their union accompanied the mother. She works hard and gains a livelihood by washing, while John spent on her hard earnings and is a good for nothing fellow.

A FINE BUILDING.—The elegant brick structure of [illegible] Parrish, at the corner of Front and Washington streets in this city, is now nearly completed, and as a beautiful specimen of architecture, as well as a monument of our progress, is deserving of some notice. The building is of the most modern brick, [illegible] 50 feet by 100 feet in size, and three stories high, built of brick, and finished in all of its apartments with the late approved character of masonry. The outside appearance of the structure is in accord with the best and most stylish rough-cast, or [illegible] work. The entire construction of this fine building has been under the supervision and direction of the contractor, Mr. [illegible] M. Burton, and his materials, including the iron fronts, cast at Portland by Mr. Honnastes, are principally furnished from [illegible] State. The use of iron as a building material has become quite an important item, and its adaptability is well shown in this instance, from the [illegible] of the awning to the main cornice of the structure. We have witnessed its erection, day by day, from the unloading of the first stone, and if there is anything lacking by way of making one of the most substantial and superior blocks of the class we are much mistaken. It is a model in itself, and its looks would do credit even to our sister San Francisco. The total cost of the building is about $[illegible]. The rooms inside, number about fifteen, which will be fitted up for lessees as occasion requires. One is of present [illegible] shape suitable for a clothing and [illegible] establishment, not to notice which would be [illegible]. [illegible] is a very elegant piece of fresco painting, in relief of the walls and ceilings, by Mr. William [illegible], an artist of no small pretensions, who has lately came among us.

THE RACES YESTERDAY.—The fall races, which commenced over the Union Course on Monday last, were attended by a large crowd of [illegible] yesterday, to witness a running match of [illegible] and repeat, free for all Oregon bred stallions. The purse was for $200 with 25 per cent. on the entrance, added. The following horses were entered:

John C. Heenan	by Mr Emery
[illegible]	by Mr Fisher
Eagle Bird	by Mr Eubanks
Dasher	by Mr Welch

The horses came up for the first heat in position for starting: Dasher inside, Humboldt second, Heenan third, Eagle fourth. On the first heat, Eagle Bird came in first; Heenan second; Dasher third; Humboldt fourth—time 1.52½. Second heat was won by Dasher—time 1.55½. Heenan and Eagle Bird were withdrawn on the third heat, which left the contest between Humboldt and Dasher. Won by the former—time 1.5[illegible]. The fourth heat was a repetition of the third, won by Humboldt—time 2.[illegible]. The race was then declared in favor of Humboldt, he standing in his favor. We recapitulate:

Eagle Bird	1.2.0.0.
Dasher	3.1.2.2.
Heenan	2.3.0.0.
Humboldt	4.4.1.1.

The day was fine, the track in good condition, and the race quite spirited.

TRICKS IN TRADE.—An illustration of how some succeed in business was well performed in this city, yesterday. A farmer living some hundred miles from Portland, came in to this a few weeks since and purchased a bill of goods at a certain establishment, paid for them, and went about some other business before leaving the city, when he again called for his purchases and took them away with him. Upon his arrival home, he found that the articles were not the same he had selected and paid for, but were quite an inferior lot. He kept his own council and determined to "get even with them," if possible. Yesterday he again visited the store—bought a bill of goods, which [illegible] advanced to him, and started "Remind [illegible]." Soon after the transaction he went to the store and tendered "greenbacks," which were refused, and a war of words ensued between him and the proprietor of the establishment, drawing a large crowd about the place—the most of whom seemed to be in sympathy with the farmer. We give the facts as they were stated to us, but withhold names, as the respectability of the firm should be like Cæsar's wife—"above suspicion."

TIN WEDDING.—An old custom has been somewhat revived in this city of late, of giving parties in celebration of wedding anniversaries,—such as the "wooden wedding" of the tenth anniversary, the "silver wedding" of the twenty-fifth anniversary, and so on. One of these, called a "tin wedding," was given in a most happy and appropriate manner on Monday evening, to one of the most prominent families of the city. Each visitor on the occasion had provided something to contribute to the amusement of the party, and everything provided was manufactured of tin, with few exceptions. The "Bride" was presented with an elegant bonnet, of the most fashionable style, made of tin and trimmed with tin throughout. The "Bride-groom" was presented with a watch-chain, with fob and [illegible], containing a picture of his "first [illegible]." The "Bride's" cake was handsomely frosted, and that it was tin was only discovered upon attempts to cut it. The evening passed off in the most pleasant manner possible.

MILITARY EXCURSION.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the second annual target excursion of Company B, [illegible] M. M., at Charles S. Mills, which will take place to-morrow below this city. The Company will meet their friends at Arrigoni's, at 10 o'clock A. M., and proceed by steamer, under the arrangement, to the grounds selected. We understand the staff officers of the brigade design attending in uniform, and [illegible] in anticipation.

ROW ON FIRST STREET.—We have not consulted [illegible] to determine the courses of the sun [illegible] at the present time, but, at all events, the [illegible] of many appear to be very wayward just now. [illegible] have got to "shooting their mouths off" [illegible], and many a little "scrimmage" is the [illegible] of it. Last evening a disturbance occurred on First street, that was the upshot of a too free use of words, or, it might have been, bad [illegible]. When will men learn to do better? We [illegible].

FISHING.—It is no uncommon thing now to note the arrival from the mountains of numbers of individuals who have made their pile, and are waiting to be transported to their homes in the [illegible], and as there is a lack of amusement here in our city they generally turn to fishing for sport, and the way the finny tribe suffer is by no means slow. It is sport enough for them, and a source of profit to the boys, who "string" the fish and sell them.

THE GLASS BLOWERS' EXHIBITION.—By reference to advertisement it will be seen that the Glass Blowers design to open their exhibitions in this city this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Harker Brother's store room on Front street, between Morrison and Yamhill streets. The public will have a good opportunity to witness the novel operation of glass manufacture. An exhibition will also be given this evening.

WOOD WORKING AND CARVING.—We accidentally dropped into the wood turning and carving establishment of Mr. W. F. Wilcox yesterday, and found him busily engaged in turning out a set of caps for the columns of the Linn county Court House, now building at Albany. The work is being done of eastern pine, and will be quite a fancy piece of workmanship. These caps measure about nine feet in circumference.

A CROWDED CROWN.—A cigar store, situated on Front street, in the immediate vicinity of two prominent hotels, was so besieged by customers last evening that the matter was taken for a row; and it caused considerable excitement. This occurred after the supper hour, and shows how the [illegible] like to smoke upon a hearty meal.

GOING UP.—The timbers for the ware house and new wharf of the O. S. N. Company's [illegible] below this city, are now being raised. That will be a most desirable and convenient wharf [illegible].

AUCTION SALE.—The regular auction sale [illegible] at the establishment of Mr. Richardson at 10 o'clock this morning.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution. Persons of a scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, [illegible], lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and scrofulous affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of Bile. All know the lurking source of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this miasmal influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

Guard against imitations. Be sure that you obtain Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue and you are safe. Sold everywhere. Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast,

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of diseases which infest the living system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates diarrhoea, dysentery, faintness, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of it, then, at once, by going through a course of
DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,
A palatable and refreshing preparation, which as surely follows all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not perhaps be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. d&w

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough, or "Common Cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
REDINGTON & CO., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places the surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

THE COPPERHEADS' CANDIDATE AT [illegible].—It appears from the following Washington correspondence of the San Francisco Bulletin, that the Copperheads are not altogether satisfied with the bargain they have made in their choice of McClellan. We think it more likely, however, that this is merely a ruse to deceive [illegible] into the support of all opposition [illegible] the writer says:

What [illegible] Peace men will [illegible] the Chicago [illegible] platform [illegible] to-day? He does not. He has renounced the platform in his letter accepting the nomination. [illegible] A bond like that is null and void. The Peace party will not consent to have their principles betrayed, and then to engage to the betrayer.

Vallandigham, we are told, is also in a state of high disgust with McClellan and will bolt. He was on his way to Pennsylvania to stump the State, when he received the General's letter, which so excited his indignation that he halted in his journey, and sent a request to have his name withdrawn from the appointments which he had made. He then turned his steps homeward. It is said that he and other Peace men will soon call a meeting to determine their future course of action. We shall probably hear of the nature of this determination before the grand national ratification of the Chicago ticket, which is fixed for the 17th of September.

Meanwhile the supporters of McClellan who are so furiously opposed to the draft, to the violation of State sovereignty, to the doctrine of emancipation, and to the prosecution of the war, will have presented to them to crack many such hard nuts as the following:

Who first recommended the draft? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who afterwards deemed it an honor again to ask its enforcement? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who arrested the Legislature of a sovereign State? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who has been the most conspicuous violator of State rights? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who suggested emancipation on the ground of military necessity? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who recommended the manumission of all the slaves in a State or States long before the emancipation proclamation was issued? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who has declared that this war must be prosecuted until the rebel armies are overthrown, despite all military disasters? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

Who says that war is necessary to secure peace and union? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

What party repudiates all these doctrines? The Democratic party.

What platform is entirely antagonistic to all these doctrines? The Democratic platform.

Who is the nominee of that party? Gen. Geo. B. McClellan.

What is his attitude if he accepts a nomination from such party on such platform? That of repudiating his own doctrines.

How do you justify such stultification? Because deceit is necessary to success.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!

Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state, by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

JAMES DUFFY,

HORSESHOER—STAR SHOP!

NO. 1 FRONT STREET, PORTLAND.

ONCE upon a time both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with, and the Saddler is required no more. And not long ago Missourian Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with, because the Best of Judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses.

Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner and upon the most reasonable terms.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain, distant valley and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.
